

Concept Map

Listening

• Take Notes on Speaker

① Ask Questions

② List Notes by Symbols

♥ - connect to

★ - key

□ - nur

③ conclusion

• Listen and find weakpoints

• Take Notes & Paraphrase

• Find date, Publication, Authour

• Prediction about text

• Cold Read, Skim

• Revised Prediction

Reading

Use Reading Cycles

• Read Title and Subtitles

• Find date, Publication, Authour

• Prediction about text

• Cold Read, Skim

• Revised Prediction

Writing

• Use MLA Format

• 12 point font

• Times New Roman

• Double Spaced

• Name, Date, Class, Title to the left

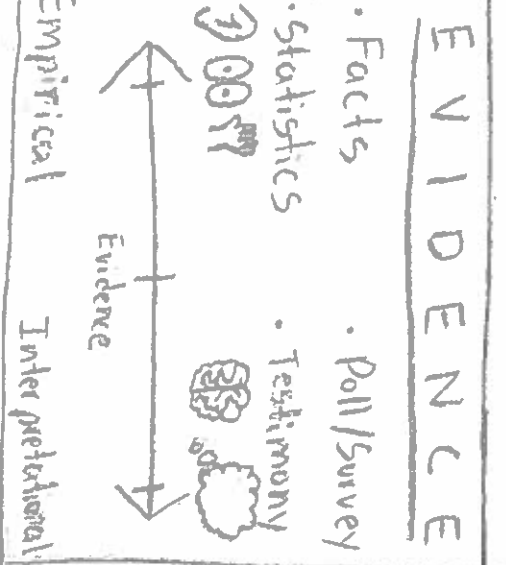

AM

Writing Based Arguments Reasoning Issue Based Argument MOVES 3 types of persuasion

EVIDENCE

- Facts
- Poll/Survey
- Statistics
- Testimony

- LISTENING
- Listen for key points/quotes - ★
 - Listen for things you love/honored - ♥
 - Ask yourself Questions - ?
 - Take notes / paraphrase - ○

Warrant: A logical explanation using the evidence supported

Deductive Reasoning
Using one or more statements to reach a logical conclusion/claim.
Ex: Sugar cause cancer therefore, sugar causes cancer

Inductive Reasoning
To use previous proven facts to arrive at a logical claim.
Ex: I leave for school at 7. I always arrive on time. So, if I leave at 7, I will arrive on time.

Issue Based Argument

- 1st Prediction
- Scan
- Skim the text
- Cold Read
- 2nd Prediction
- FLY-Over
- Start Reading
- Paraphrase
- Circle Unknown words/phrases
- Summarize
- Ask Questions about the purpose of the text

MOVES 3 types of persuasion

R.I.P Credibility

- paraphrase speaker
- challenge credibility
- present evidence made by professionals in that field

Dig-Up the Warrant

- paraphrase surface the warrant
- challenge warrant by checking flaws

"The earth is flat" move

- paraphrase
- challenge old facts with new ones
- explain how they discount old facts
- Power Punch Move
- paraphrase
- present point that overwhelms the rival's point

ETHOS
Convince the audience to trust you based on the authority or credibility of yourself

Pathos
Convince the audience by establishing emotion to your argument that ties to the audience

Logos
Persuade the audience with reason, facts and figures.

Argument: a set of reasons given with the aim of persuading others that an action or idea is right or wrong